SUMMARY

WORLD WAR I ON MEMORIAL MEDALS IN THE HOLDINGS OF THE MODERN GALLERY

World War I was a global war between two alliances of states (the Allies and Central Powers) which took place on several continents from 28 July 1914 to 11 November 1918. The Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, which included most Croatian lands, had a large army. This recent history of Croatia can be studied from various memorial medals. The Medals and Plaques Collection of the Modern Gallery, most of whose items belong to the Dragutin Mandl Collection, contains ninety medals connected to World War I and associated war events.
