Instructions for Authors and Contributors

Europske studije—European Studies is a scientific journal with the fundamental objective of publishing research papers and other contributions in the field of European integration studies. Due to the nature of research in the area of European studies, the journal is of an interdisciplinary character, open to various approaches and research methods that contribute to the understanding of the process of European interaction, the political and legal system of the European Union, the influence by Member States on policies of the European Union, as well as the shaping of the values of European integration during its historical development.

As a Croatian scientific journal, Europske studije—European Studies devotes particular attention to the Europeanization of Croatian society and policies, and the relationship of the integration processes of Croatia with those of other Member States of the European Union. Likewise, Europske studije—European Studies affords particular importance to research that show the comparative relations within the European Union, again with emphasis on the Croatian regional Central European and Mediterranean context.

Authors whose papers meet the criteria of relevance and scientific excellence are invited to submit contributions. Papers must not have been partially or wholly published, and must not be in the process of publication in any other journal, proceedings, book or the like, and must not be translations of such works. For all the aforementioned, authors must assume responsibility. The prerequisites for publication in the journal are two anonymous positive reviews by international researchers from the given area. Papers should be submitted in DOC format via e-mail to eurostudije@net.hr.

Due to the anonymity of the reviews, in a separate document it is necessary to send the name(s) of the author(s) with the place(s) of employment, contact information (address, telephone, e-mail) and brief biographical information. Papers must be written either in the English or the Croatian language. All the pages should be numbered. On the first page should be the title of the paper and a summary indicating the tasks.
and objectives of the research, research methods and main results (100 to 150 words with a list of 5 to 6 keywords), all in the Croatian or English language. The expected length of the paper, including notes, bibliography and graphs, should be between 5,000 and 6,000 words. Sources should be cited in abbreviated form, for example (Saurugger, 2013: 15) or (Naurin and Wallace, 2010). At the end of the text, under the heading Literature, only the references cited should be listed, in alphabetical order.

Books: Author. Year. Title. Publisher. Place.

Articles in journals: Author. Year. Title. Journal. Volume#(number#). Pages.

A chapter in a book or paper in proceedings: Author. Year. Title. In: Editor of book or proceedings, ed. Title of book or proceedings. Publisher. Place.

Next to an URL (web address), the last access date should be given in parentheses (DD/MM/YYYY). Footnotes should be used rather than endnotes. Authors are required to obtain permission from copyright holders for reproductions of illustrations, photographs, tables, graphs or long quotations, which must be submitted to the editor.