Summary

LJUDEVIT VUKOTINOVIĆ — WRITER, POLITICIAN, STATE OFFICIAL AND SCIENTIST

The article deals with the biography of Ljudevit Vukotinović (1813-1893), lawyer by profession, a wellknown writer, scientist, politician, economist, as well as state official. The article focuses especially on his activities in Križevci and the County of Križevci during the Illyric period, the Croatian movement of 1848, the period of Bach's Neoabsolutism and the period of return of the constitutional state (after 1860). Vukotinović is shown to be a strong individual, extremely dilligent and dedicated, participating in the transformation of the Croatian feudal society into a civil society of liberal orientation.
