European Association of Psychology and Law

The Aims of the EAPL are:

- ◆ To promote good research and practice in the area of psychology and law, including legal processes, crime and criminal justice topics.
- ◆ To promote European communication and co-operation between psychologists, lawyers, and related professions.
- ◆ The President of the EAPL is David Farrington (England); the Past President is Fridrich Lösel (Germany); and the President-elect is Frans Willem Winkel (Netherlands).

The EAPL:

- ◆ Organises conferences. The next conferences will be in Kraków, Poland (2-5 September 1998) and Dublin, Ireland (6-9 July 1999; a joint conference with the American Psychology-Law Society).
- ◆ Publishes a Newsletter containing information of interest to members.
- ◆ Books from the conferences are published. The latest are:
  - ◆ G. Davies et al. (1996, Eds) Psychology, Law and Criminal Justice, Berlin: De Gruyter.
  - ◆ S. Redondo et al. (1997, Eds) Psychology and Law, Berlin: De Gruyter.
- ◆ Members of the EAPL can purchase these books at a greatly reduced price.

Membership:

Membership of the EAPL requires a scientific qualification in psychology, law or a related field such as criminology, sociology or psychiatry. Members come from all over the world, but mainly from Europe. The current subscription is DM30 (£12) per year for full membership. For details, write to:
