

We are dedicating this issue to our dear teacher, mentor, colleague, and friend Professor Milan Polić who passed away January 19, 2015. His intellectual legacy spreads across many fields of philosophical inquiry. His quest, however, was one and the same: to preserve the authenticity of human individual. In this journal, which was founded by Professor Polić 25 years ago, we wish to continue walking on this path.

Editorial Board