

EDITORIAL

This, as well as the previous issue of Acta Economica et Turistica features a selection of papers presented at the Third International Tourism and Development Conference: Urban Environments organised by Libertas International University with the Faculty of Sport and Tourism in Novi Sad, Serbia and the Faculty of Tourism of the University of Maribor, Slovenia, which took place in Zagreb from 1st to 3rd December, 2016.

The two special editions are dedicated to 21 selected papers from a total of 38 papers presented at the conference. The nine papers included in this issue observe the topic of urban tourism from various professional and scientific aspects, and at the same time complete the selection of published conference papers.

I would like to take this opportunity to remind readers that the next TAD conference will be held in Brežice, Slovenia at the end of this year. The details of the conference will be published soon on the official TAD website and we invite all authors, professors and researchers to participate in the conference.
