SUMMARY

FORGING MONEY IN THE KINGDOM OF YUGOSLAVIA IN THE 1930S, WITH SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE SAVA BANOVINA AND THE BANOVINA OF CROATIA

The author gives a complex picture of forging money on the territory of the Kingdom of Yugoslavia in the 1930s, primarily based on archive material, but also on the contemporary press. He mostly covers cases of forging in the Sava Banovina and the Banovina of Croatia, analysing the political, social and geographical aspects. He pays special attention to how the authorities reacted to the forging, the socio-demographic characteristics of the forgers and forging organisations, and to the territorial flow of the money. His analysis is aimed at showing some characteristics of the practice of forging.
