

EDITORIAL

Dear readers,

We are happy to introduce you to volume five of the INTEREULAW EAST - Journal for the International and European Law, Economics and Market Integrations.

The current issue brings various interesting topics and literally, makes the interdisciplinary piece in every sense. The represented fields are law and economy, the authors are domestic and foreign, and the topics discussed concerns national and international problems. This issue with its papers will definitely make valuable source for further comparative researches.

On this occasion we are also proud to announce what is coming with the December issue. The publishers of the INTEREULAW EAST Journal are organizing the 3rd International Conference on European Company Law and Corporate Governance, which will take place in Zagreb on December 6-7 2018.

The Conference will gather leading researches and experts in the field of company law and corporate governance, as well as students and young scholars. It will focus on the current topics from the fields such as rules on digital solutions, cross-border operations, shareholders rights and duties, special rules for financial institutions, state interventions to the companies' management etc. For more info on the upcoming Conference please visit <https://eclcg-conf.weebly.com/>.

Therefore we decided to dedicate the next issue especially to the conference topics, and bring our readers the papers mirroring the latest developments, theories, practices and regulations from the field of European company law and corporate governance.

Until then, we sincerely hope you will enjoy the current issue.
