

Luka Huzjak, univ. spec. pol.
University of Zagreb

SLOVAKIA IN THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN MONARCHY AT THE TURN OF THE 19TH TO 20TH CENTURIES

Summary

The work covers an exploration of the Slovak position within the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries. The dualistic arrangement and central features of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries are briefly described. The Slovak position within the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy is explained in more detail, taking into account Hungarianization, the Slovak political agenda, the influence of foreign as well as internal politics and Czechoslovak cooperation. At the end of the paper, a conclusion on the characteristics of the Slovak position in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy is presented.

Keywords: Austro-Hungarian Monarchy; Hungarianization; the Slovak political agenda; Czechoslovak cooperation; the impact of foreign and domestic policy