

EDITORIAL

Dear readers,

We are happy to introduce you to volume VI, issue 2 of the INTEREU-LAWEAST – Journal for International and European Law, Economics and Market Integrations. Variety of the topics discussed in the published papers is a guarantee of a wide array of scientific fields covered in this issue - contract law, accounting regulations, capital market instruments, EU competition law, employment issues and customers satisfaction.

Furthermore, we are happy to introduce six new members of the Journal's Editorial board, distinguished scholars, Associate Professor Dmitriy Galushko, Voronezh State University; Assistant Professor Tomislav Jakšić, University of Zagreb; Associate Professor Corrado Malberti, University of Trento; Full Professor Tenured Siniša Petrović, University of Zagreb; Professor Konstantinos Sergakis, University of Glasgow and Assistant Professor Zvonimir Šafranko, University of Zagreb. New members of the Editorial board will hopefully refresh the Journal with new ideas, initiatives and working methodology and thus contribute to the further development and improvement of the Journal.

We are exceptionally proud to inform you that the Journal has successfully passed the evaluation process and was accepted to the one of the most prominent abstract and citation databases – Scopus. It is quite a remarkable achievement, given that the Journal was established five years ago, but more than that, it is an increased responsibility and additional motivation for the publisher, editorial staff and authors to continually improve quality of the Journal and its contents. We sincerely hope to meet these expectations.
