

Dear readers,

It is our pleasure to present to you another issue of the scientific and professional journal Education for Entrepreneurship – E4E which also includes one part of the papers from the 9th International Conference on Entrepreneurial Learning (ICEL 9), as well as other papers received.

This issue has been published in electronic form only. A total of 13 papers has been published in this issue, of which 4 are original scientific papers, 7 review papers and 2 professional papers. This issue covers areas from modern entrepreneurship through marketing in entrepreneurship, socially responsible entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial education and many others.

The quality of the journal depends on the authors, the topics they research and the reviewers. Therefore, we would like to thank all the authors who, by selecting our journal, have contributed to its development, as well as the distinguished reviewers of the published papers who have judged the quality of the papers conscientiously and professionally. We would also like to thank the Editorial Board, the proofreaders, the graphic designers and everyone else who has contributed to the sustainability of this journal.

We invite you to continue cooperation in scientific and professional research and its application in the field of entrepreneurship education, entrepreneurship, management, but also a wider area of the business economics. In doing so, we jointly promote the exchange of ideas between science and practice and contribute to the academic and professional community as well as to the future development of the journal Education for Entrepreneurship – E4E.
