Summary

In this Featured topic we bring the lectures held at the round table organised in Malinska on 27th August 2015 on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the adoption of the first Croatian Constitution whose Draft was made in August 1990 just in Malinska and called, therefore, the “Krk Constitution”. The featured topic was edited and provided with an introduction by Tomislav Galović, PhD, assistant professor, and the technical „Foreword: For a return to the ideals of the Krk Draft of the Christmas Constitution“ was written by Branko Smerdel, PhD, full professor, head of the Chair of Constitutional Law of the Faculty of Law of the Zagreb University. After the foreword there comes the welcoming address by Darijo Vasilić, mayor of the Town of Krk, Robert Anton Krajić, head of the Community of Malinska-Dubašnica and Dr Milan Radić, president of the Historical Society of the Island of Krk. This portion is followed by the announcements made at the round table by the speakers: Marina Valković (The Establishment of Political Parties on Krk 1989/1990 (The beginnings of the multi-party system with special regard to Vrbnik)), Anton Katunar (Memories of a MP of the year 1990), , Anton Bozanić, PhD, assistant professor (The State of Church on the Krk Island at the Time of the Creation of the Draft of the Croatian Constitution), Duška Šarin, PhD (The Significance of the Adoption of the Croatian Constitution), Vladimir Šeks, PhD h.c. („The Christmas Constitution“). There was a short discussion too, with Dragutin Žic, Mladen Juranića and academician Petar Strčić speaking. There are also photograph from a private album of Josip Šamanić (from Sv. Vid-Miholjica) and a facsimile of “The Krk Constitution” - manuscript of Vladimir Šeks, August 1990 and a facsimile of A report on the course and results of the local elections for the members of the Assembly of the Community of Krk, Krk on 11th May 1990.
