WTIDELINE

trans. by Mirna Čudić Žgela

Tideline is the beginning
Tideline is the end
The end of land
The end of end

Not everyone
Can dwell here
The crab
The hairy crab
The clam
Cannot live Without
You
Shellfish
Mussels
And periwinkles;
Your hollows
Swarm with A diversity
of sea creatures;
Your recesses hide
shoals of fish

The green moss
The sea-weed
The swaying grass
Mark the ever-changing
ebb-line
All day long

White cliffs
Black crags
Sharp-edged rocks
Clean hollows
Filled with brine
To spice your snacks

The surface
Carries
The floating

Lišće žile
Ol kaparih

Kapara je
Ovode nikla
Na sve ovo
Ona se privikla

Kordur spojo
More, kroj
Nebesku ariju
Po furtuni
Slici na Kalvariju

Bote.....bote
Kroz škripe
I grote
Silne bote
Lebićode
Tvorde bure
Levantore
Žastoko juga
Maistroli
Pulentaci
Drugi vitri
Po bonaci

Kordur je pocetak
Kordur je život
Furtune i vitri
Njegov su kapot

Sve nebije
I bonace
Korduru
Minjaju face

Drift;
Shrimps Prawns and Tiny fish
Swim Underneath
Playing hide-and-peek

The grebe chasing
fish;
Sea-gulls
flying high;
The sun above
Scorching
Caper roots and leaves

The caper
Has sprung
Here
Embracing it
As its demesne
As home

The tideline binds
The sea and land
Celestial air
In a raging storm Conjuring up
the image of Calvary

Waves.....the swell washing over
crag, rocks,
and grottos Overwhelming
swells of south-wester;
tempestuous boras
and easterly gales,
fierce sciroccos
and mistrals;
other winds
in the dead calm

Tideline is the beginning
Tideline is the life
Gales and storms
Are its shroud

All the tempests
and calms Transfigure
The tideline's mien.
