

COOPERATION BETWEEN MUSEUM (OF SLAVONIA) AND SCIENCE

S U M M A R Y

Starting from the premises of G.E. Lessing in the discussion “Laokoon or on the boundaries of fine arts and poetry” and mapping them to science and museology, the author of the presentation provides the basis for cooperation between museums and scientists starting from the Museum of Slavonia, a museum with the most diverse collection in Croatia, the largest museum library in Croatia and a long tradition of professional - scientific publishing, which provides a large space for scientific work.
