

OUT OF JUDICIAL AND JUDICIAL MEDIATION WITH REFERENCE TO APPLICATION TO INSURANCE CASES

Summary : An act or procedure, regardless of the name, by which the parties seek to resolve their dispute amicably with the help of one or more conciliators who help the parties reach a settlement, without the authority to impose a binding solution is reconciliation (mediation, conciliation). There are different models that are known, such as judicial, extrajudicial and court-affiliated. Out-of-court mediation in Bosnia and Herzegovina with all the specifics and its comparison with Croatian and Slovenian solutions with special reference to the application of out-of-court mediation in insurance cases, is discussed in this paper.

Keywords: mediation, mediation models, specifics of out-of-court mediation to existing regulations and pro futuro in insurance cases