

Publication Ethics and Publication Malpractice Statement

The journal Glasnik Zaštite Bilja (Journal of plant protection) is a scientific-professional journal. Papers are reviewed by a double-blind review. Prevention of any ethically unacceptable behaviour in publishing is an important obligation of the editor i.e. the editorial board. No form of unethical behaviour will be tolerated. Plagiarism is unacceptable and authors, when submitting work for potential publication, confirm that the content is original and has not been published or is under review elsewhere.

For this purpose, authors are obliged to submit a signed statement Author's statement of ethics when submitting a paper for review.

Our ethical statements and responsibilities for editors, authors and reviewers are based on COPE's Best Practice Guidelines for Journal Editors. All documents are available on the COPE website

(https://publicationethics.org/files/u2/Best_Practice.pdf).

All papers are copyright protected. Entire articles published in the journal can be freely used for personal and educational purposes, with mandatory citation of the source. Use for commercial purposes is not permitted without a written permission of the publisher. All advertisements in the journal are subject to the approval of the publisher or editor. Advertisers must not have knowledge of the editorial content. Advertisers do not influence any of the publisher's editorial decisions or advertising policies. The journal will not accept advertising of products or services that are known to be harmful to health (e.g. tobacco and alcohol products).
