INTEREULAWEAST JOURNAL ETHICAL STANDARDS

By submitting papers for publication in the INTEREULAWEAST Journal authors agree:

- That submitted paper is result of the original work of the author/authors.
- That submitted paper hasn't been previously published, wholly or partly in other publications.
- That research is based on real, accurate and verifiable data.
- That submitted paper is in compliance with the general standards and rules for citation, and that the paper wasn’t plagiarized in any part.
- That submitted paper is composed and formatted in accordance with the Instructions for authors.

INTEREULAWEAST Journal shall provide

- The equal publication procedure for every submitted paper that meets the aforementioned terms.
- Assessment of the submitted papers exclusively on the objective criteria and in accordance with the basic standards and rules of the profession.