ETHIC STATEMENT

Editors of Miscellanea Hadriatica et Mediterranea are seriously committed to the issues of publication ethics and believe that its responsibility includes efforts to recognize and disable any kind of misconduct, such as plagiarism or any other kind of academic fraud. All ethical norms that we apply in publishing process are based on intention to provide a fair, unbiased and transparent process of peer-reviewing and publishing. This is also expected form peer-reviewers who are chosen after their academic reputation and reliability.

In case any member of editorial board detect misconduct by the part of authors, reviewers or editors, he/she should report it and assure that it is disabled.

for the editorial board of Miscellanea Hadriatica et Mediterranea

Anamarija Kurilić, Editor-in-Chief