

Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement

Povijesni prilozi

Editorial Board Responsibilities

- The Editorial Board of Povijesni Prilozi is committed to maintaining the highest standards of publication ethics and takes all possible measures against any publication malpractices.
- The Editorial Board ensures the fair and unbiased review process for all submitted manuscripts, avoiding any conflict of interest.
- The Editorial Board guards the confidentiality of the submitted manuscripts and protects the identity of reviewers.

Authors' Responsibilities

- Authors must ensure that their work is entirely original and has not been submitted elsewhere for publication.
- Authors must properly cite and acknowledge the sources of data used in the research.
- All authors must have made significant contributions to the research presented in the manuscript and should be listed as co-authors. The submission of an individual or co-authored manuscript implies the consent of the author or co-authors with the submitted version of the manuscript as final.
- Authors should notify the editor of any errors found in their submitted manuscript and cooperate with the editorial team to rectify these.

Reviewers' Responsibilities

- Reviewers must conduct the review process objectively and provide constructive feedback to improve the quality of the manuscript.
- Reviewers should disclose any conflicts of interest and report any ethical concerns related to the manuscript.
- Reviewers must keep the content of the manuscript and the review process confidential.

Publisher's Responsibilities

- The publisher is committed to supporting the integrity of the publication process and addressing any ethical concerns promptly.
- The publisher ensures the accessibility of published content to the wider academic community and the public.

Adherence to Publication Standards:

The Editorial Board, authors, and reviewers of Povijesni prilozi (Historical Contributions) adhere to the guidelines provided by COPE .