

Instructions to authors

Manuscripts should be sent to the address of Jezik jezik.hr@gmail.com or to the e-mail address of the editor-in-chief sanda.ham@gmail.com.

By sending the text to the journal Jezik, the author undertakes that the text is original, that it does not infringe other people's copyrights in the sense of the Copyright and Related Rights Act (<http://www.zakon.hr/z/106/Zakon-o-autorskom-pravu-and-related-rights>.)

If the work has already been published or if the author has submitted the work to another publisher, he will inform the journal Jezik.

In the journal Jezik, papers are not proofread, they are only corrected.

Technical instructions

- The work does not need to be graphically designed or folded.
- The paper should be written in Word font Times New Roman 11 with a spacing of 1.5. Notes should be written below the text, in the same font, but in size 9. Only what you want to emphasize should be italicized in the paper. Do not consume greasy printing.
- Indicate the literature in straight letters (it is not necessary to italicize), write commas (not dots) between the parts of the bibliographic unit, and write dots after the ordinal numbers. In the sense of - to write a hyphen, not a hyphen. Write a colon so that there is no space on the left, and there is on the right.

For example:

Stjepan Babić, 2008, O uništenom hrvatskom prijenovosadskom pravopisu, Jezik, vol. 55, no. 3, p. 102. - 105.

Stjepan Babić, 2004, Croatian Wrestling, ŠK, Zagreb that is

(Babić, 2008: 103)

(Babic, 2004)

Authors need to create their own ORCID identifier. It can be easily created by following the instructions on the link
<https://hrcak.srce.hr/orcid>