

Author Guidelines

Povijesni prilozi

The journal Povijesni prilozi uses the Open Journal System for the submission of articles and the peer review process. The journal uses the Chicago citation style adapted to the Croatian language for writing notes and bibliography. We kindly ask authors to follow the Author Guidelines during submission; otherwise, the submission will not be accepted. The journal accepts scientific articles up to 15,000 words, including notes, tables, graphics, and other attachments. If the research article exceeds this limit, authors are encouraged to contact the editorial board. Authors are also requested to provide a short and extended abstract, as well as keywords, during submission. The journal conducts the review process through a double-blind peer review, and authors are advised to remove all authorship and affiliation details as well as any information in the footnotes that may indicate the author's identity before submission.

The copyright holders are the publisher Croatian Institute of History and the authors. Historical Contributions is an open-access journal. The content of the journal is freely accessible. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the material, and to modify, transform, or build upon the material, or use it for any other lawful purpose, as long as they appropriately cite the source, in accordance with the Creative Commons license CC BY-NC.

Papers published in Historical Contributions may be stored in institutional and thematic repositories, provided that links to the journal's website and HRČAK are provided.
