

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

“Social ecology” publishes theoretical, empirical and methodological papers within the scope of social ecology, as well as other scientific disciplines related to the area of environmental sociology. Its primary focus being on original scientific (research) papers, the journal also publishes professional papers (featured article), review articles, preliminary communication, conference papers, translations, book reviews, essays, bibliographies, as well as variety of documents and information that would be of interest to science and social development. Authors are asked to keep in mind the multidisciplinary character of the journal, and therefore to make an effort to present their papers in a way acceptable to variety of readership.

Editorial board accepts unpublished manuscripts only. Papers can be submitted by e-mail or regular mail on a CD or USB. Papers should be written in 12-point Times New Roman font, with a single spacing 1.0 (30 lines per page) and normal margins (90 characters per line), in a Microsoft Word readable format. Manuscripts are submitted for anonymous review. Editorial board retains the right to adapt the manuscript according to reviews and language standards.

Manuscripts should be sent by mail to the following address:

SOCIJALNA EKOLOGIJA
Odsjek za sociologiju, Filozofski fakultet u Zagrebu
Ivana Lučića 3
10 000 Zagreb, Croatia

or by e-mail: socekol@ffzg.hr or iycavar@ffzg.hr

The submitted manuscript must be the authors' own original work for which they accept full scientific and ethical responsibility. The manuscript cannot be previously published or concurrently submitted for publishing elsewhere. In case of academic dishonesty or plagiarism, the Editorial Board will initiate appropriate procedures in accordance with the internationally accepted ethical guidelines published in the Code of Conduct by the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).

Authors are asked to respect the following instructions:

Papers

1. The paper (including summary, bibliography, footnotes and graphics) should be up to 30 pages long.
2. Paper title should be written in capital letters. Below the title, on the right, write the name and surname of the author, institution name and, and author's e-mail address.
3. Naslov rada piše se velikim tiskanim slovima. Desno ispod naslova treba stajati ime i prezime autora, naziv i adresa ustanove u kojoj je zaposlen, te njegova e-mail adresa.
4. Graphic supplements (tables, graphs, drawings, etc.) should be in black and white, not larger than A4 format. All graphic supplements must be numbered (Figure 1, Table 1, etc.), and their place in the text clearly marked. Graphs and tables should be submitted in their original format so they can be edited within the editorial adaptation of the text.
5. Each time phrases, ideas, data, terms, etc. are quoted, the sources of the quote are to be given in the text, not in footnotes. The reference is placed in brackets and should contain author's surname, the year of publishing and, in the case of direct quotation, pages, for example: (Rifkin, 1986) or (Rifkin, 1986:23). If the paper has two authors, both should be written, for example:

(Mesarović and Pestel, 1976). In the case of three or more authors, the form “et al.” is used, for example: (Matas et al., 1989). All references in the text should be quoted as if they are appearing for the first time, i.e. forms such as „ibid.“, „op. rit.“, „loc.cit.“, etc. should not be used. In the literature (bibliography) at the end of the paper full information should be given about every work quoted in the references.

6. In the literature (bibliography) all works that are referred to or quoted in the text should be listed, in alphabetical order according to the surnames of the authors and in chronological order, when there are more works by the same author. If more works by the same author are referred to, and all are published in the same year, they should be differentiated by placing letters (a, b, c, etc.) after the year of publication. In case the work is written by more authors, the form “et al.” should not be used here, instead, all authors should be listed. Literature should be written according to the following examples for various bibliographical units:

Book

Matas, M., Simončić, V. and Sobot, S. (1989). Zaštita okoline danas za sutra. Zagreb: Školska knjiga.

Chapter in an edited book / collection

Afrić, V. (1989). Znanost i ugrožavanje prirodne sredine. U: Cifrić, I. (ur.), Ekološke dileme (str. 31-40). Zagreb: Sociološko društvo Hrvatske.

Journal article

Ujević, T. (1991). Ekološki aspekti društvenog razvoja. Revija za sociologiju, 22(1-2): 191-204. (22 marks the volume, (1-2) number within the volume, and 191-204 pages of the article within the journal)

Website

7. Footnotes are written in Arabic numbers above the last letter of the word to which they refer and are listed at the end of a page. Footnotes should only be used for commenting or supplementing what is said in the text.

8. The summary should be 200-250 words long describing the purpose of the paper, its main results and conclusions. The summary should be placed at the beginning of the paper, after the title. At the end of the summary, marked “Keywords”, the key words of the paper should be given.

Reviews and book reviews

Local and foreign works not older than two years, from the date editorial board receives it, are submitted for review. Review should not be longer than 8 pages. In the first page, in upper left corner, write the name and surname of the author of the work that is being reviewed. In the next line, write in capital letters the title of the work. If there is a subtitle, write it in small caps underneath the title. In the next line give the following information: publisher, place of publishing, year of publishing and the number of pages. Review is signed at the end in full name and surname of the reviewer.

Book reviews (content summary and key ideas discussed in the book) are written in the same way as reviews. They should not be more than 6 pages long.

Information

The length of information about lectures, conferences and other interesting and significant events should not exceed 4 pages. Information is to be signed at the end in full name and surname.
