

Economic Thought and Practice is a scientific journal published by the University of Dubrovnik. It encourages top-quality papers on a broad range of topics in the field of economics, including theoretical, applied, interdisciplinary and methodological work. Submissions are welcome, but not limited to, the issues of producer and consumer behaviour, regional and industrial economics, tourism, financial markets, unemployment, inflation, globalisation and international economic integration, institutional economics, economic policy, development and growth, history of economic thought and other areas of economics. All papers are subject to a «double-blind» review process, detailed in the Guide for Authors. Besides research articles the journal also publishes a variety of other types of papers such as book reviews, occasional discussion papers on important topical issues and conference summaries. The journal supports open access to the published paper. It is co-financed by the Ministry of Science and Education of the Republic of Croatia.
